1. WESTERN CANADA HOCKEY LEAGUE

(Final official statistics for 1969-70 season).

Reg Leach of Flin Flon Bombers topped the Western Canada Hockey League in goals and points for the 1969-70 season.

The starry 19-year-old right-winger fired 65 goals and added 46 assists for 111 points. Winnipeg Jets' centre Chris Oddlicfson, who finished third in the point derby behind Leach and Estevan Bruins' Greg Polis, led the circuit in assists with 64.

Polis was second in the scoring race with 104 points, on 48 goals and 56 assists. Oddlicfson added 31 goals to his 64 assists for 95 points, three more than Estevan's Lorne Henning.

The top point-getters in the Western Division were veteran Jim Nichols of Saskatoon Blades and Randy Rota of Calgary Centennials. They each had 90 points.

Flin Flon centre Gene Carr was the league's top scoring rookie. Carr had 73 points, while Swift Current Bronco captain John Mignoault was the top scoring defenceman. Mignoault had 51 points, five more than Estevan captain Herb Howdle.

Brandon Wheat King left-winger Butch Deadmarsh led the league in penalties with 301 minutes, while Oddlicfson was second with 243 and Blaine Rydman of Estevan third with 214.

The league's top goaltender was Ray Martynuik of Flin Flon. The nimble 19-year-old compiled a fine 2.58 average, while Ed Dyck of Calgary followed with 3.22. Edmonton Oil Kings' Ian Wilkie was the shutout leader with five, one more than Martynuik and two more than Dyck.

WESTERN CANADA HOCKEY LEAGUE

Playoffs in sport usually breed new heros.

And, the Western Canada Hockey League, 1969-70 edition, was certainly no exception.

Flin Flon Bombers' rookie Chuck Arnasson, who finished 23rd in the regular season scoring race, emerged in the playoffs to win the title by five points over teammate Reg Leach and Chris Oddleifson of Winnipeg Jets. In winning the regular season crown, Leach compiled 111 points, 50 more than Arnasson.

In the playoffs, however, Arnasson picked up 32 points on 14 goals and 18 assists and many of those points were timely. He led the league in game-winning goals with four and also drew assists on five game winners, also tops in the league.

The freshman Bomber was second to Calgary Centennials' defenceman Leh Frig in the first-goal-of-the-game department. Frig had four and Arnasson three. Arnasson also drew four assists on first goals, tying him with fellow Bomber rookie Roger Crone for the lead.

Frig, rookie Cent, also led the league in power-play goals with five, while Leach was tops in engineering manpower-advantage markers with six. Leach also scored twice while killing penalties.

Leach, 19-year-old starry right-winger, topped the league in goals with 16 and added 11 assists for 27 points. Oddleifson had eight goals and 19 assists, a league high, for his 27 points. Bombers' John Stewart followed with 26, two more than Brian Cadle of Winnipeg.

In the goaltending department, Ed Dyck of Calgary compiled the best average of the playoffs -- 2.81. Ian Wilkie of Edmonton Oil Kings was second (2.97) and Ray Martynuik of the league-champion Bombers was third (3.10) Dyck, Wilkie and Jets' Mike Schneider recorded the only playoff shutouts.

Badman of the post-season play was Oil Kings' Doug Kerslake who sat out 107 minutes in penalties. Oddleifson was second with 90, Cadle was third (86) and Edmonton's Ted McAneeley (79) was fourth.
